

2017 National Judge

Richard Daigneault

Landscape Architect

Gatineau, QC

Richard is a graduate of the University of Toronto, with 25 years of experience practicing Urban Design & Landscape Architecture in both the provinces of Ontario and Québec. Richard is a Senior Project Manager with the National Capital Commission where he has been working with the Design & Construction Division for 25 years.

He has developed a unique expertise in multi-disciplinary urban design and streetscape redevelopment projects as one of the key professionals responsible for implementing the renowned Confederation Boulevard ceremonial route in the heart of Canada's Capital. Recent projects and initiatives involve multi-modal mobility studies and urban cycling infrastructure development projects, including some of the very first segregated on-road cycling lanes in the City.