Lorna McIlroy

Retired Teacher &
Horticulturist

Grande Prairie, Alberta

Lorna is a lifelong gardener and a lifelong learner. Over the years, she obtained her B.Ed. and M.Ed. and enjoyed twenty-five years in the classroom. As a trained horticultural judge for thirty years, she recently completed the Prairie Horticulture Certificate program.

Retirement has allowed her to pursue her interests in traveling, gardening and volunteering locally with the city museum, garden club and highland games; provincially as past-president of the Alberta Horticultural Association and as president of the Alberta Retired Teachers' Association and particularly with the Communities in Bloom programs.

Having been a provincial, national and international judge with Communities in Bloom over the past sixteen years, Lorna takes great pleasure in seeing 'People, Plants and Pride – Growing Together'
