

2022 National Judge

Berta Briggs

Retired Greenhouse Owner
Wetaskiwin, Alberta

Berta was raised on a farm near Edmonton, Alberta. Following University graduation she spent 5 years traveling and working outside Canada; she worked in Australia, England and Kenya.

In 1981 Berta founded Arber Greenhouses near Wetaskiwin, Alberta. She is now semi-retired with her daughter and son-in-law taking over the greenhouse and garden centre business. Berta still enjoys working in the 'fun' jobs at the greenhouse. The most successful crop Berta has raised are her 3 daughters.

Involvement in her community has always been very important to Berta. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, volunteering, curling, gardening and traveling (post covid).

Berta has been a provincial, national and international judge with Communities in Bloom since 2000 and has had the privilege to tour and learn about hundreds of communities. She has always been inspired by the pride, energy and passion that people invest in making their communities great places to live. Showcasing and sharing great projects and ideas is a great strength of Communities in Bloom.
