

2022 National Judge

Lorna McIlroy

Retired teacher, horticulturist
Grande Prairie, Alberta

Lorna is a lifelong gardener and a lifelong learner. Over the years, she obtained her BEd and MEd from the University of Alberta in Edmonton and enjoyed twenty-five years in the classroom. After retirement, she completed the Prairie Horticulture Certificate program, and she is currently enrolled in the Alberta Master Gardener program offered by Dalhousie University.

Taking early retirement enabled her to pursue her interests in traveling, gardening and volunteering with the community museum, her local and provincial retired teachers' associations and particularly with the Communities in Bloom program.

Lorna has been awarded an honorary life membership in the Alberta Horticultural Association where she served as president for four years. As a trained horticultural judge, she has enjoyed judging throughout Alberta and northern British Columbia for the past thirty years.

Having been a provincial, national, and international judge with Communities in Bloom over the past fourteen years, Lorna takes immense pleasure in Growing Great Places Together!
