Christine Isaac

Community Development
Coordinator for the City of Leduc
Leduc, Alberta

Christine Isaac is a dedicated Community Development Coordinator for the City of Leduc with a wealth of experience in fostering engagement and enhancing the quality of life which makes Leduc a great place to live, work and play.

In her role, Christine conducts comprehensive research and facilitates board development sessions for non-profit organizations, ensuring they have the necessary resources and guidance to thrive. Moreover, Christine spearheads the Community Development capital program, where she plays a pivotal role in developing and maintaining park master plans, prioritizing capital initiatives, and managing community engagement events to ensure community needs are addressed and integrated into the city's planning process.

Outside of her professional endeavours, Christine is an avid lover of animals and nature, finding solace in exploring the great outdoors and immersing herself in the wonders of the natural world.

Christine also volunteers on several non-profit boards including the Leduc Sports Hall of Fame and has worked part time at a local greenhouse for the past 17 years.
